

COMPANY PROFILE

FUCHS ROUX
PROKUREURS | ATTORNEYS

Welcome to Fuchs Roux Incorporated,

an established law firm specialising in property law.

Our next area of specialty is in relationships.

Our team believes that doing things faster isn't always the best way to build long lasting relationships with both our clients, associates and/or business partners.

We believe in putting in the time it takes to do things right - right in terms of quality and right according to good, ethical business practice.

The strong relationships ensure positive interaction between our attorneys, the estate agents, originators, banks, consultants, purchasers and sellers, and ensures the quick registration of various rights relating to immovable property in deeds offices all over South Africa.

Our office is conveniently located at 373 Queens Crescent, Lynnwood, Pretoria. When you enter our offices you enter a friendly helpful law office that practices 21st century property law at its best.

“don't expect the usual...”

Our values in everything we do are: excellence, respect of each other and people's individuality, collegiality, and sharing of knowledge and innovation.

We work together to create a working environment that is both challenging and enjoyable – one in which we all thrive! We are fully committed to the importance of building a successful and professional relationship with YOU – our valued client.

Our goal is to satisfy the needs of all our clients by offering superior service while adding value. Recognising that the practice of law does not occur exclusively during usual working hours, our directors have a policy of approachability and can be reached on their mobile phones 24 hours a day.
